A Historic Venue for Your Celebration

The Palmer Historical & Cultural Center is a non-profit multi-purpose performance venue and cultural center available for use by everyone in the region. Residing in a beautiful former church, the Center's main function space is Harmony Hall, a large room featuring shuttered windows, hardwood floors, and a platform stage framed by an ornamental arch.

PHCC is proud to offer individuals, organizations, non-profit groups, and others the opportunity to hold their events in this quaint function space that boasts historic charm, privacy, and up-to-date technology!
